Great Army Of Help For Arboretum

Famous Men Pledge Assistance To Great Local Undertaking

Trustees Set Aside Bailey
Canyon for Use of Organization

As a result of the conference held at the City Club in Los Angeles, the following resolution was adopted by City Attorney Fred Beyer and passed unanimously by the Board of Trustees of the City of Sierra Madre:

"Whereas a large group of residents of Sierra Madre have organized under the name of the Sierra Madre Botanical Society for the purpose of establishing a botanical garden or arboretum as a cultural and educational non-profit public institution, and,

"Whereas, they desire to establish the botanical garden or arboretum upon lands owned by the City of Sierra Madre in what is known as Bailey Canyon, and

"Whereas the Trustees of the City of Sierra Madre feel that the project is eminently worthy and beneficial to the welfare of the community, therefore be it

"Resolved that without prejudice to the safety or welfare of the city or abrogation of any existing rights of the city the Trustees of the City of Sierra Madre do hereby record their desire to cooperate in bringing about a consummation of the said project by giving assurance to the Sierra Madre Botanical Society that a portion of said city property in Bailey Canyon will be available for the purpose of installing a botanical garden and arboretum any time within one year from this date and after said society has been legally organized and the plan of operation adopted by it is satisfactory to this board and subject to such reservation and conditions as said board may deem necessary to adequately protect the interests of the city and the general public in relation to such project."

This sets Bailey Canyon aside for development as an arboretum. The action of the Board of Trustees of the City of Sierra Madre, as announced by Frank Shearer, president of Los Angeles Parks, to definitely make its plan of operation adopted by it is satisfactory to this board and subject to such reservation and conditions as said board may deem necessary to adequately protect the interests of the city and the general public in relation to such project."

During the week Mr. Arthur N. Carter and his daughter, Miss Annetta Carter, made a careful study of the canyon, including water measurements. Their interesting report, which will be transmitted to the Arboretum Committee, is published in another column.

The celebration of the Arboretum will be held on Sunday, July 10, at Bailey Canyon. Pioneers will be special guests of the day. Over 200 organizations from Santa Barbara to San Diego are expected to furnish representation. The formal program will start after 4 o'clock and will be bright, interesting, dignified and appropriate to the day. Mr. Humphries, chairman of the day, wishes help and especially asks old-timers to give him their active cooperation.

The District Committee, under the leadership of Mrs. Fletcher H. White, had its first meeting at the Mogul Tea Room for luncheon and has started its work of enrolling every person in Sierra Madre in the Botanical Society.

George Morgridge is organizing the Speakers' Committee, whose services have been in demand frequently, both here and in Los Angeles. He will be glad to receive offers of volunteer help.

The interest of the leading men and women of Southern California, many of national and international fame, is reflected in the following letters:

"Mr. Bullock (of Bullock's, Los Angeles) will be very glad to help in any way possible. Some time when you are in the city you will stop in and see me we will go over the matter and see in just what way he can be of assistance. Assuring you of his desire to cooperate with you, I am, Yours truly, H. W. Bigelow."

George W. Marston, merchant of San Diego and benefactor of Pomona College: "I greatly appreciate the desire of the committee of the Sierra Madre Botanical Society to have me take a place on the committee. I regard such societies of great value. Let me help you in some special way if you are needing help. (Continued on Page Eight)

"DEPRESSION" IN CALIFORNIA "PIPE DREAMS," ASSERTED

Pasadena Sun: Attention of various eastern newspapers that are busily engaged in attempts to spread false reports concerning business conditions in California is respectfully called to the existing situation in Sierra Madre, thriving and prosperous little foothill community adjacent to Pasadena. Leases just closed there mean that every available business building in the town is to be occupied thruout the summer months, despite the fact that Sierra Madre has been advertised chiefly as a winter resort.

There is a crying need for additional business structures, since some of those now in use are hardly suitable for modern business conditions. Plans are under way for the erection of some additional store buildings, but even those thus far projected will not take care of the city's present needs, to say nothing of its certain future growth.

If there is any "business depression" in Southern California, those who live here and know conditions would like to see it continue.

Refunds On School Fare May Be Made

Unused Portions Must Be Returned To Traffic
Manager

At the close of every school year high school pupils are confronted with the question of unused portions of their commutation books. School Trustee J. O. Smith wrote the Pacific Electric Railway about it recently and received the following reply from O. A. Smith, passenger traffic manager:

Los Angeles, Cal., June 8, '27.
Mr. J. O. Smith,
Sierra Madre, Calif.

My dear Mr. Smith:
Replying to your letter of June 3rd relative to extension on unused portions of 46-ride commutation tickets held by students attending the Pasadena High School:

The rules and regulations contained in this company's tariff will not permit making extensions under the conditions. However, refunds can be made on basis of purchase price per coupon for 23 or less unused coupons in ticket at expiration of school term, upon presentation of certificate signed by Superintendent or Principal of the institution attended, certifying that school term has expired, providing that ticket has not expired at the end of school term.

We will also refund the entire amount of fare paid when no portion of ticket has been used and also at difference between fare paid and published round trip fare for each two coupons used and the one-way fare if an odd coupon used.

If you will mail the books to me you will be very glad to make necessary refund.

Yours truly,
A. O. Smith.

CHURCH WILL ASK FOR BIDS ON BUILDING

The plans for the new building of the First Congregational Church are developing very rapidly. The committee approved the final plans of Mr. Mott M. Marston, architect, of Los Angeles, at a recent meeting and made arrangements with him to act as superintendent of construction.

It was decided to handle the work by segregated contracts and the architect was authorized to ask for such bids in the immediate future. The committee is anxious that a number of local firms should submit bids as the members would like to see as many Sierra Madre people as possible at work on the new edifice.

The building committee announces that it has several important matters to tell the church congregation and next Sunday morning these will be made public.

Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Deutsch and daughters of Redondo Beach spent Saturday visiting old friends and relatives in Sierra Madre. Mr. Deutsch has been employed until recently in one of the Safeway stores.

Junior High Bus Service Is a Puzzle

Bids Called For But Fail to Materialize In Three-
Week Period

May Force High-School District To Operate Own Transportation

Bus transportation of junior high school pupils between Sierra Madre and the new Woodrow Wilson school will have to be handled by the high school district rather than by private contractors, according to present indications. Although twice advertised, no proposals have been received for the contract.

For the past three weeks ads in Pasadena and Sierra Madre papers have called for bids to be submitted to Secretary L. M. Pratt of the board of education on Monday of this week. Inquiry at that office reveals the fact that no one seems to care for the job, presumably because of the short time each day when the expensive bus equipment would be required for the work. Only two trips each day would be required, carrying the pupils to school in the morning, and back to Sierra Madre in the afternoon.

At the headquarters of the Pasadena board of education the opinion was expressed that the high school district would have to provide and operate the buses in order to comply with the promises of direct transportation when the Blanche Street site was chosen for the new junior high school.

Various reports have been in circulation recently as to the routing and timing of the proposed junior high school bus service. These details have not been worked out and all such reports are without foundation.

President Humphries of the chamber of commerce has hopes that the school bus requirement may provide a basis upon which local bus service may be supplied in Sierra Madre. He has long been convinced that this would be a great boon for Sierra Madre. He has been carrying on negotiations with a man who would like to undertake local bus service, but hesitated because he feared the absence of an assured support. Upon learning of the difficulty over the school transportation Mr. Humphries resumed negotiations with him in the hope that the school contract would provide a basis for getting the equipment and running the local service in connection.

MYSTERY IN THEFT LOSSES FROM CHURCH

The third of a mysterious series of thefts from the Church of the Ascension was discovered Tuesday night when a crucifix was found to be missing. The loss was discovered by C. H. Perry, who has charge of the choir, and saw the crucifix in its usual place on Monday.

No particular connection is thought to exist between the depredations, as they happened at intervals over a period of about a year. The first was the taking of a Victrola from the Parish House. Someone had driven up with a motor truck and hauled it away without authority. The second was the theft of an electric motor which operated the blower of the pipe organ. In that case entry to the basement was forced. The loss was discovered when the organ failed to respond to the organist.

Japanese Student Passes Away Here

Henry N. Koneka, a Japanese university student, passed away on Sunday at 175 East Montecito where he had been residing the past two years. He was thirty years of age and had been ill for a long time. Funeral services were held on Monday evening at the Moreland chapel, the body being sent to Stockton for interment. Rev. Koneka of Los Angeles conducted the service.

Mrs. Charles W. Collins sustained a sprained ankle Tuesday night which was very painful for a time. It was feared she would be unable to take her scheduled role in one of the plays at the club house tonight, but at last reports she had improved sufficiently to make her appearance practically certain.

CHAPTER HAS LARGE CLASS OF INITIATES

Sierra Madre Chapter of the Order of the Eastern Star had a most enjoyable meeting Monday night as a sort of farewell before the vacation season. Mrs. Milton Steinberger, the matron, announced the next meeting will be on the first Monday in August, and this will be the only meeting until the first Monday in October. The past matrons and past patrons of the chapter were the special guests of the evening and participated in a part of the ritual work. Six candidates were initiated: Mrs. William Murphy, Miss Leah Fletcher, Mrs. Anna Brain, Miss Virginia Jones, Mrs. O. H. Obst and Mr. Harold Roberts.

After the chapter meeting dainty refreshments were served at charmingly appointed tables in the banquet room. A number of visitors from other chapters were present.

Club Benefit Tonight Will Be a Winner

Evening of Super-Merriment
Promised All Who Attend
Plays at Club

Advance information concerning the work of the players who will appear in three one-act plays in the Woman's Club house tonight seems to justify an enthusiastic commendation of the entertainment. Every one of the offerings is worth while, there is enough variety to suit all tastes, and people who have been watching the rehearsals declare that some of the favorite performers are simply bound to outdo themselves under the direction of Mrs. J. Milton Steinberger.

The Monrovia Trio under the direction of Ray Rockwood is famous by reason of their radio work. This in itself should be a powerful attraction. The Temple Male Quartet has been working up some new "stuff" and can be depended on for a full share of entertainment. The quartet personnel, J. C. Heasley, first tenor; Joe R. Eastwood, second tenor; Dave Buchan, baritone; Jack Buchan, bass. The quartet will be assisted by winsome Miss Mary Brown.

This evening's event is another example of splendid community co-operation. It has been arranged under the direction of Mrs. J. Milton Steinberger in return for courtesies and assistance rendered by the Woman's Club to the Wistaria Fete. The complete program will include the following:

IN 1999
A problem play of the future by Wm. C. DeMille

MRS. MILLARD PASSED AWAY ON WEDNESDAY

Mrs. D. J. Millard passed away on Wednesday after a long illness, at the home on Windsor Lane where she had resided with her family the past twenty years. She was seventy-two years of age and a native of Sweden. For several years she assisted her husband in conducting the old Sierra Madre bakery adjoining their home.

In addition to her husband, Mrs. Millard is survived by a son, Charles W. Millard, and a daughter, Mrs. Juanita Brewer, both of Los Angeles. Funeral services will be held at 2:30 Saturday afternoon at the Moreland Chapel, and will be in charge of Rev. Mr. Tuttle of Los Angeles. Interment will take place in the Odd Fellows Cemetery, Los Angeles.

What Nature Has Done In City Canyon

A. N. Carter and Daughter
Identify Many Beautiful
Plants and Shrubs

An Outstanding Beauty Spot
In Land Famous for Natural Beauty

The beauties of Bailey Canyon have been dearly loved by a good many people, and by none more than the old timers who have been familiar with it the longest. It is natural that some of these should be heartily in favor of making these attractions a permanent public possession as Sierra Madre Arboretum.

No one is more enthusiastic over the plan than Arthur N. Carter, son of the founder of Sierra Madre. Mr. Carter supervised the building of the trail into the upper part of the canyon in 1898 when the old water company made an effort to develop water there. A few days ago he returned over the old trail, in company with his daughter, Annetta, who is specializing in botany at junior college. The result of their trip is well told in the following contribution:

Early one morning we left home equipped with a short handled shovel, a two foot section of light galvanized iron pipe, a gallon can, and a lunch for two. Our destination was the upper region of Bailey Canyon as we wished to make a survey of the existing conditions in reference to the development of the Sierra Madre Arboretum. Besides making a survey of the water, we also made note of the trees, shrubs, and flowers growing in that vicinity.

In order to get into the upper canyon, we took the old trail which the Sierra Madre Water Company built in 1898 for the purpose of packing supplies and material to the tunnels which it was planning to construct. The larger growth along the trail on the southern slope of the mountains consisted of Laurel Sumac (Rhus laurina), Lemonade Berry (Rhus integrifolia), Wild Cherry (Prunus ilicifolia), Holly (Ilex), Christmas Berry (Photinia arbutifolia), Lilac (Ceanothus divaricatus), Black Coffee Berry (Rhamnus californica), Chamise or Grease-wood (Adenostoma fasciculatum), Red-berry (Rhamnus crocea) and Hard-Tack or Birch-leaf Mahogany (Cercocarpus betuloides). There were many beautiful shrubs in bloom, too. —White Sage (Salvia apiana), Buckwheat (Eriogonum fasciculatum), Prickly Phlox (Lepodactylon californicum) with its solid masses of pink blossoms, and the Black Sage (Salvia meltonifera). We found once variety of the White Sage which had a beautiful lavender blossom. Besides the shrubs on the mountain slopes, there were many beautiful small flowering plants, both annuals and perennials. Of these, we found the Mariposa Lily (Calochortus), Golden Stars (Bloomeria crocea), Canehalagua (Centaurium venustum) with its clusters of deep pink, five petalled flowers, Turkish Rugging (Chorizanthe stictocarpa), Indian Pink (Silene laevis), and Epilobium, a beautiful yellow flower belonging to the Evening Primrose Family. The Canehalagua has long been used by the old Spanish families as a medical herb.

For quite a distance the trail led along the steep side of the ridge; then it turned sharply to the right. As we approached this point, we heard the splashing of a small mountain stream, and rounding the point, we saw before us a deep gorge lined with Maples, Mountain Oaks, Big Cone Spruce, and Mountain Laurels. Farther up, the canyon widens into two thickly wooded basins with an undergrowth of Ferns, Gooseberries, and Currants. Among these are groups of lavender Godetias, bright yellow Monkey Flowers (Mimulus), and tall Tiger Lilies (Lilium parviflorum).

There is a beautiful small mountain stream in the canyon to a distance of approximately three hundred feet above the upper tunnel. The water at this upper tunnel flows at the rate of 21 gallons per minute. Next, we took the measurement at approximately two hundred feet below the lower tunnel. This gave a measurement of 8.7 gallons per minute showing that there is a heavy loss due to seepage. The final measurement was taken at the falls in the lower canyon. This measurement was 13.8 gallons per minute. All measurements were taken off solid bed rock. With this amount of water available, there are wonderful possibilities for the development of our arboretum.

Nature has already given us

HELPED RIVALS ATTEND NATIONAL BAND CON- TEST AT OMAHA, NEB.

A news story telling in part the splendid good will existing between two California cities has been appearing in A.P. reports thruout the United States, and will undoubtedly prove of interest in Sierra Madre, where a movement is now on foot to organize a juvenile band. The story follows:

"All in white, the Princeton, Cal., band attracted wide attention. When Princeton won over Arcata, Cal., in the California band contest, the Arcata band decided to raise money enough and go to Omaha just as visitors. They raised $500 and then found the project was impossible. Princeton, a consolidated school in a tiny town, was scrambling to get the wherewithal to go. Arcata turned over its entire $800 to Princeton, and then held a concert and raised $500 more to speed them on their way. The Princeton band, numbering 51, represents a high school of 100 enrollment in a town of but 150 population. Eighty of the 100 high school students play in the band, but only 51 were taken on the trip."

Bird Lovers Find Canyon Interesting

Thirty-three Varieties Identified by Members of Audubon Society

Residents of Sierra Madre, as well as of the canyon, will be interested in knowing that at a recent meeting of the board of the Los Angeles Audubon Society held at the canyon home of Mr. and Mrs. Leon S. Griswold, 33 varieties of birds were seen and identified in and around the canyon. Mrs. Griswold, treasurer of the society, submitted the following list of the birds identified:

Anna Hummingbird, Costa Hummingbird, Arizona Hooded Oriole, Alaska Hermit Thrush, Black-headed Grosbeak, Steller Jay, Blue Jay, California Bush-tit, Nuttall Woodpecker, California Woodpecker, California Purple Finch, Spurred Towhee, Anthony Towhee, Anon Wren, Pacific Touse Wren, Rock Wren, Mountain Quail, Thrush, Junco, California Thrasher, Red-shafted Flicker, Mockingbird, Wren-tit, Phainopepla, Turkey Vulture, Plain Titmouse, Sparrow Hawk, Golden-crowned Sparrow, Mourning Dove, California Shrike, Western Flycatcher, Willow Goldfinch, Western Tanager, Bank Swallow.

During February of this year Mrs. Griswold identified the Robin, Varied Thrush, Ruby-crowned Kinglet, Rufous-crowned Sparrow, Audubon Warbler and Chickadee.

Friends of Mr. and Mrs. O. E. Enley are sharing with them their deep sorrow over the loss of their little daughter, Barbara Jane. The little one was born on May 30. From the first high hopes were mingled with fears that she would not live long and she passed away on Saturday, June 18. The funeral services were conducted Monday afternoon at the Moreland chapel by Rev. Dr. Elwood P. Lyon and the little body was laid at rest in the Monrovia Mausoleum.

STUDIO CLEANES OPEN BRANCH IN THIS CITY

The Studio Cleaners, a branch of the Clean Rite Dye Works of Glendale, has rented quarters in the Hotel patio and opened up for business last Saturday. Charles Mays of Glendale negotiated for the opening of the new establishment in this city. The firm professes to be the largest chain dry cleaners in Southern California and has several branches in Glendale, Burbank, Van Nuys, San Fernando and Eagle Rock and is now engaged in extending its business scope into the San Gabriel Valley.

90% of the arboretum with the growth of ferns, shrubs, and trees that she has placed in the canyon. Nearly everything that we found growing along the trail and in the upper canyon, we also found in the lower canyon below the falls. It our duty to provide the further development and conservation of the water already there, and by careful planting of more trees and shrubs.

Canyon Flood Work To Be Pushed Soon

Dam Seventy Feet High To Impound Flood Waters,
Is Planned

To Finish Ahead of Winter
Rains If Easements Can Be Procured

At a meeting of the Canyon Improvement Association, Canyon property owners and representatives of the city, held Tuesday night in the Canyon club house, the first constructive steps toward obviating the danger of future floods in the Little Santa Anita were taken.

The fifty people present were addressed by H. E. Hedger, engineer of the right of way department of the flood control commission. Mr. Hedger pointed out that the commission was prepared to proceed with the work of cleaning out, straightening and widening the stream channel. He advised that the commission had decided on a channel twenty-five feet wide with a two and a half-foot right of way on each bank. Before proceeding with the work, Mr. Hedger explained that it would be necessary for property owners to give easements covering the right of way, this thirty-foot right of way to extend from the water department fence on the north to Grand View Avenue on the south. South of Grand View the plans call for a ninety-foot channel, which will be of a different type from that used in the canyon. The rubble walls on each side of the upper channel are to be six feet high and eighteen inches wide at the top, tapering to a thickness of four and a half feet at the bottom, which will be three feet below the stream bed. The stream bed will not be concreted as this sort of surface permits a too rapid flow of water. The contemplated improvement calls for a dam seventy feet high to be located just above the present fence of the water department. Provisions are made to release the average amount of water required for the protection of trees. Mr. Hedger announced that the commission would set stakes showing definitely the proper location of the channel so that property owners might know how much of their property would be required for the improvement.

In reply to questions, Mr. Hedger explained that any bridges or walls removed would be restored, that wherever possible present walls would be used, that as the width of the stream channel had been definitely established work on the improvement of the roads could proceed, that the purpose of the dam is to check the flow of detritus and that the entire improvement would be carried through without cost to property owners, the expense being defrayed out of the $150,000 bonds voted three years ago. Mr. Hedger further explained that Chief Engineer Eaton of the flood control commission had decided that the work should be begun at once and finished before the fall rains.

Trustees Belohavek, Isaacs and Hall, City Engineer Gierlich, Secretary Campbell of the chamber of commerce and Street Supt. Carpenter all expressed their approval of the plan and their willingness to co-operate and help. The following committee, consisting of Messrs. J. M. Canfield, E. A. Anderson, J. Richards, F. W. Schallert, Thompson and Miss L. Cadmus, was appointed to agreements for easements.

It was the hope of the present that there would be no undue delay in securing agreements as Mr. Hedger promised that the commission was prepared to commence work at once at Fort Pansawakutui.

Mrs. Nestor A. Young of West Highland Avenue entered informally last Sunday 5 to 7 o'clock, for Miss Adelaide Steele Baylor of Washington, D. C., who is spending several weeks in the Pacific coast states. Miss Baylor is chief of home economics education under the Federal board for vocational education. Fourth of July Is Just Ahead!
When we are celebrating let's think now and then what it's all about.

Your Independence Day

The Fourth of July comes in the good old summer time, but so far as coal is concerned you have dependence or independence days according to your forethought or lack of it. Every day will be independence day for you next winter if you will give us your order for coal now so that we can put it in for you while we have it. Think this over.

Son: "Papa, I got into trouble at school today and it was your fault."
Pop: "How's that, son?"
Son: "Remember, I asked you how much a million dollars was?"
Pop: "Yes, I remember—"
Son: "Well, 'A hell of a lot' isn't the right answer."

A lot of our customers tell us they like the kind of service we give. That makes us feel like giving more.

A GREAT EXAMPLE

DURING the past month Sierra Madre people have heard enough about arboreta so it is no longer necessary for them to ask whether an arboretum is kept in a cage or in an aquarium. The names of many of the great arboreta and botanical gardens of the world are passing as currency in ordinary conversation. The one most frequently named is Arnold Arboretum in Boston, in some respects the greatest in the world. As a matter of general information on the subject, something of the history of this great institution may be of interest just now.

Arnold Arboretum is a branch of Harvard University, situated in Jamaica Plain in the city of Boston. It is open free to the public from sunrise to sunset every day in the year. Visitors in increasing thousands journey from all parts of the country and from abroad to view and enjoy its plant treasures. It has strong appeal for all who love the landscape beautiful in trunk and bark, twig and bud, flower and fruit. To the scientist who wants to know the best the world has to offer in any class of hardy trees and shrubs, its riches are inexhaustible.

The work of Arnold Arboretum was commenced and carried on by one man, Prof. Charles S. Sargent, over a period of fifty-four years. His energy, ability and enthusiasm have made it what it is—known wherever plants are loved and studied, sharing its bounty with gardens in every land.

Arnold Arboretum was so named because of the bequest of James Arnold, a New Bedford merchant, which made it possible. Its origin is due to the imagination of George B. Emerson, author of the well known book, "Trees and Shrubs of Massachusetts," who was one of the three trustees in whose hands Mr. Arnold left his bequest. Mr. Arnold died in 1869, and in 1872 an agreement was signed between his trustees and the authorities of Harvard. By its terms the college received an endowment of $103,000 and agreed to devote 125 acres of land to the purpose of forming an arboretum to be called the Arnold Arboretum wherein to grow every tree and shrub able to withstand in the open air the climate of New England.

Charles Sprague Sargent was appointed director of the new arboretum in 1873, as well as Arnold Professor of Dendrology at Harvard. In his own story of the first fifty years he said: "The prospect of being able to establish a useful institution would not have been encouraging if the men interested had had at that time as much knowledge as hope and enthusiasm. . . . The director found himself with a worn-out farm, partly covered with natural plantations of native trees, nearly ruined by excessive pasturage, to be developed into a scientific garden with less than $3000 a year available for the purpose. He was without equipment or the support and encouragement of the public which then knew nothing about an arboretum or what it was expected to accomplish."

It took ten years to educate the public. Little the city officials of Boston to the possibility of the Arboretum for park purposes. Frederick Law Olmsted was at the time engaged in planning and constructing a park system for Boston. He proposed a series of forces, but met with no support from Prof. Sargent. Officials of Harvard of the city were hostile and the different to the idea.

Ten years of agitation and semi-work the Olmsted plan was accepted and agreed to add certain adjoining lands, to construct and maintain a system of roads and walks, to police the grounds and to assume all taxes which might be levied on the property for the term of the contract. In return the university agreed to open the arboretum to the public at all reasonable times as part of the park system of Boston, and to pay a yearly rent of one dollar. The contract was made for 1000 years, with provision for renewal. This has been called the wisest and most far-seeing contract of its kind that has ever been drawn up in the history of gardens. The present area of the Arnold Arboretum is about 250 acres.

The Arboretum as an established home for woody plants was a big inducement to travelers interested in gardens to collect and send to it seeds and living plants. Immediately on its founding the institution began to get into correspondence with botanic gardens, nurserymen, travelers and others for the purpose of getting together the nucleus of its great collection. The last half century has seen great activity in the introduction of new trees and shrubs and in the creation of new forms of the art by the hybridizer. In this work the arboretum has played a prominent part.

The Arnold Arboretum is not a school or forestry nor of landscape gardening. It is a station for the study of woody plants as individuals, in their scientific relationships, their economic properties, cultural requirements and possibilities. In the arrangement of the arboretum, everything is planted with a due sense of the fitness of things, so that the whole aspect is that of nature at work.

The herbarium, photographs and library of 35,500 volumes which have been accumulated are accommodated in a plain brick building where visitors can carry on their researches. In short, the Arnold Arboretum assembles and nurtures all that is beautiful, interesting and hardy among wood plants from all parts of the world; distributes its surplus material among kindred institutions throughout the world; seeks knowledge for the sake of knowledge, and provides one of the choicest beauty spots in the world for the enjoyment of all who come there.

PUNCTUATION RULES

A man went into a printing office and asked the young apprentice what rules of punctuation he followed. The boy replied: "I set up as long as I can hold my breath and then I put in a comma, when I gap I insert a semi-colon, and when I want a chew of tobacco I make a paragraph."—Altoona (Kans.) Tribune.

BIGGEST AND SAFEST

(J. L. Matthews in Covina Argus)
WHILE the San Gabriel Canyon dam is the highest dam ever projected, it is also the thickest, in fact two-thirds as thick as it is high. It is not so much a wall to be thrown across the canyon as it is a concrete fill, a barrier comparable in strength to the hills it is to be tied into.

This barrier, 438 feet above foundation, is 365 feet through from face to heel. No amount of disturbance can cause it to topple. It cannot turn over any more than a stone six feet long and four feet wide can turn. It is remotely conceivable that a tremendous seismic disturbance, such a pronounced movement as would be cataclysmic to all civilization in the Pacific region, would result in its destruction.

Not only is it to be proof against such conditions, but no amount of water pressure is possible that would affect it. The enormous back-flow of water it will cause is to the east and west of the dam, and not directly bearing upon the dam itself, excepting in comparatively inconsiderable amounts.

The San Gabriel dam is to be nearly nine times bigger than any dam of any kind yet built in the world, and because of its character the safest of any yet built. There should be no apprehension upon the part of anyone. Disasters in connection with dams are invariably caused because of under-estimation of the power and volume of water, and because of direct pressure upon the dam. The San Gabriel dam is to be as permanent and immovable as are the mother mountains.

Time to bring out the Spanish shawls and sashes. The "Old Time" celebration marking the formal opening of the Sierra Madre Arboretum is to occur soon. It wouldn't be a bit amiss to have a few horsemen, dressed in the picturesque Spanish garb, riding up and down the streets during the next couple of weeks.

They gave Lindy the "freedom of New York City." And then he flew to St. Louis to rest up.

Main Street, Los Angeles, wants a new name. Main Street by any name would smell as—er, sweet.

Aimee says she has found the trap door of h—-. Some folks are curious to see on which side of the door she will establish her headquarters.

Bebe Daniels has "busted" her engagement to Charley Paddock, it is asserted, but is willing to be a sister to him. That clears the way for attention from "Lindy"—if Lindy proves susceptible to feminine wiles.

George Young says fame is a fickle flapper. Jack Dempsey probably thinks the same thing. They both, probably, believe that but a few short weeks will pass until Col. Lindberg is forgotten. These two commercialized "cham-peens" have missed the point. They have done nothing useful—nothing to make their names living torches in the onward march of civilization. Of course they will be forgotten, while Lindberg's name will rise to greater and greater heights. The difference between these three men is something for the rising generation to think about.

Stanley McLellan, who with his family recently left for Wisconsin to make their future home, are located at 2324 Victoria Lane, Racine, Wis. In a letter to the News Mr. McLellan stated they had a splendid trip east. They ran into rains in the Middle West and got stuck once, concerning which experience Stanley says: "I had a 'Sierra Madre News' with me and I banked it all around the rear wheels, got back into the car, put it in low and out we came. The 'News' is better than tire chains."

Friends here will wish the McLellans all success and happiness in their new home.

Congratulations

Pleased to learn that my good friends back in S. D., Vern Pratt and Paul Deutscher of the Brookings (S. D.) Register, won the National Editorial Association contest for best front page and very nearly won first for the best weekly newspaper. With that honor and Coolidge's visit, South Dakota should resume her forward march toward fame and prosperity.

The public always gets the tough breaks. A movie extra one day, tired of hanging about the lots, answered an ad for a helper in a steam laundry. She missed the first car and when she got there the job was gone. The next day she returned to the lot, was "discovered," and is now a star. And she might have made a darn good laundry worker.

Some folks wonder why prize fighting is such a well paid "profession." It's based on advertising, of course. The "smoke-ups" in the newspapers bring out the saps who are willing to pay $50 for a ring-side seat. And the advertising costs 'em nothing—theoretically. At that, I once knew a sports writer on a large metropolitan daily who rented an apartment at $150 per month, owned a $4500 car and lived in other ways proportionately—on a "salary" of $45 a week.

Observations

(By G. B. M.)

HOW THEY GROW—

Lela Joy Eastwood had a birthday anniversary Monday. And from personal observation I'll say she's some baby. I can only marvel at the restraint of the scribe of REServations when he writes about her. But just wait till she begins to carry on conversations with him! Judging by her animated interest in a variety of things I believe she is going to furnish some choice paragraphs. Then Father JRE will swell up with honest pride—until youthful frankness hands out a jolt like I received the other day. The son of the family said naively: "Sis says dad is good looking—isn't that a joke."

DIRECT TO SIERRA MADRE—

Los Angeles people have decided they can never get their city out of the village classification until they get rid of the old name of Main Street. So they propose to call it Huntington Boulevard all the way from the harbor to this side of the city, continuing it by way of Mission Road to tie in with the present Huntington Drive. An effort will be made to have the name of Huntington Drive changed to conform.

When Central Avenue in Sierra Madre is opened up and the name changed to Sierra Madre Avenue just see how convenient it would be. In directing travelers from Los Angeles to Sierra Madre, just tell them: "Follow Huntington Boulevard to Sierra Madre Avenue, and then follow Sierra Madre Avenue to Sierra Madre."

The benefits from such a convenient traffic connection would be beyond computation.

PLEASE MISTER ANONYMOUS

"First Things First" is the title of an interesting communication received by the News but which is not published solely for the reason that it was anonymous. It was signed "Taxpayer, Chamber of Commerce Member, Sierra Madre News Subscriber."

With everything the article says I am in perfect agreement except for one misstatement of fact which its writer would probably want corrected if called to his attention. I wish he would come into the News office and talk it over.

All Around the Town

Happily Married at Church

A prettily appointed wedding was that of Miss Marguerite Fern DeTemple, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. M. A. DeTemple of 390 West Central Avenue, and Mr. Edwin Charles Parker of Los Angeles, which was solemnized in the Church of the Ascension on Wednesday at high noon. Rev. William Carson Shaw officiated, in a setting made very lovely by Dorothy Perkins roses and ferns.

The bride, who was given in marriage by her father, was attended by Miss Linda Schwartz, as maid of honor, while Mr. Joseph Burns of Los Angeles served as best man. The music for the wedding was furnished by Mrs. Frances Kitzman of East Pasadena, who played the bridal chorus from "Lohengrin."

The bride was beautifully gowned in white georgette, her bouquet consisting of bride's roses and white sweet peas. The maid of honor wore blue georgette, her flowers being yellow rose buds.

A wedding breakfast was served at the home of the bride's parents, their guests being the bridal party and the bride's grandmother, Mrs. J. M. Beeson of Los Angeles.

Immediately following the service at the church, there was a reception at the Parish House for the guests, numbering about seventy-five. Refreshments were served by Mrs. Elizabeth Wheeler.

Mr. and Mrs. Parker are in the Yosemite Park, planning to be gone two weeks. Upon their return they will make their home in Los Angeles where Mr. Parker is in the real estate business. The bride has been graduated from the Clara Barton hospital in Hollywood where she has been a nurse until recently.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Belin of Tucson, Arizona, have leased the R. A. Pratt home on Sturtevant Trail and have already taken possession. Mr. and Mrs. Pratt and daughter, Dorothy, are residing in the Hayden home, corner Baldwin and Mira Monte. The lease was made through the agency of Andrews & Hawks.

Mr. and Mrs. Ray A. Grant and daughter Ruth drove to San Luis Obispo for a week end visit.

Mrs. Hortense Hill, Mr. and Mrs. Victor C. Hill, Mr. and Mrs. George B. Morgridge and children drove to San Bernardino Wednesday to be present at the wedding of Mrs. Hill's niece, Miss Hortense Peterson, to Mr. Harry Pommier. The wedding music was furnished by Mrs. Morgridge at the piano and Miss Elizabeth with the violin.

Mrs. Frank E. Gibson and son Everett of Marlborough Terrace left on Tuesday of this week for Greeley, Colorado. They are making the trip overland and expect to spend the entire summer in Colorado, returning in time for school in the fall.

Mrs. R. S. Corlett and Mrs. H. E. Handerson, who has been visiting at the Corlette home, 65 East Mira Monte Avenue, since December, left Wednesday for the East. It is Mrs. Corlett's intention to accompany Mrs. Handerson to Chicago, where they will separate, the former continuing to Winnetka, Illinois, to visit her daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. W. T. Wersted, for a short while. Mrs. Handerson will return to her home in Cleveland, O.

Shower for June Bride

Miss Muriel Tarr and Miss Linda Schwartz were hostesses Saturday afternoon at the Tarr home on West Montecito Avenue, at a miscellaneous shower complementing Miss Marguerite DeTemple who was married Wednesday to Mr. Clinton Porter. Enjoying the lovely affair also, were Mrs. Sidney Ashton (Marjory Blecker, formerly of Sierra Madre) of Covina and Mrs. Marguerita Johnstone. Tea was served.

Interesting News Notes from Sierra Madre Canyon

The last regular meeting of the Ladies Aid Society of the Congregational Church for this season was held under the trees at the home of Mrs. C. L. Hoover on Churchill Drive, on Tuesday. It was also made the occasion for a meeting of the Missionary Society of the church. The delightful picnic luncheon served out of doors was enjoyed by the forty people present.

After the luncheon Mrs. E. E. Bacon, president of the Aid Society, conducted the regular business of the meeting.

Mrs. Milford J. Thompson presided at the meeting of the Missionary Society which opened with a talk by Rev. A. O. Pritchard. An interesting feature of the meeting was the reading of a letter received from Dr. Lois Pendleton of Tientsin, China, where she is connected with the hospital under the management of the Congregational Board. Dr. Pendleton in her letter thanked the local society for its aid toward obtaining an X-ray machine for the hospital. She also dwelt upon the present unsettled conditions in China and pointed out future mis-

Mrs. L. S. High, accompanied by her son, Arthur L. High and his daughter, Leona, returned Wednesday after a three week's visit with friends in San Francisco. While there they visited many places of interest in and around the bay district. The entire journey was made by auto.

Mr. and Mrs. J. A. McLean and son Charles of 1022 Locust Avenue, Long Beach, are spending a week at Herman's Inn.

Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Seek and Mr. and Mrs. H. A. Shutt were guests at a farewell party given in their honor at the home of Mrs. Grace Bagby on Saturday night. The evening was spent in playing games and dancing, after which delightful refreshments were served. Mr. and Mrs. Seek and son Clyde left on Monday for Ft. Collins, Colorado, where they will spend two months with Mrs. Seek's sister at that place. The Shutt family is leaving soon for Long Beach. Those present and wishing bon voyage to the guests of honor were Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Anderson, Mrs. H. B. Paisley, Mr. and Mrs. C. F. Ishoy, Kay Ishoy, Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Thompson, Mr. and Mrs. J. A. McLean and son Charles, Mrs. G. W. Lollis and Miss Jane Wallace.

Mrs. E. J. Wallace, Mrs. Myrtle Wallace, Frank and Jane Wallace, are occupying Funkhouser's Nook for two weeks.

Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Lollis of 325 West Third Street, Long Beach, are located for a month in Allen's Snuggery on Woodland Drive.

Mr. and Mrs. Clem Berberet and children, Lela and Virgil, of 730 Esther Street, Long Beach, have been enjoying a short vacation in Seldom Inn, 607 Woodland Drive. Mr. Berberet is bread salesman for the Sydams Butter Cream company in Long Beach.

The many friends of Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Railsback will learn with regret of the sudden illness of Mr. Railsback. Despite the serious nature of the ailment, it is expected that Mr. Railsback will soon recover.

Mr. and Mrs. F. G. Mogul, proprietors of the Mogul Tea Garden which opened last week, spent a busy week-end serving many guests. Among the Los Angeles, Hollywood, Long Beach and Sierra Madre people who enjoyed their dinner at the garden were Mr. and Mrs. R. M. Guy, Mr. and Mrs. H. Collins, Mrs. Gordon Wolfe, Mrs. Anna L. Bawden, Mrs. Georgia Brazier, Miss Jean Elliott, Miss Lillie Williams, Messrs. Leo Neeson, Joseph B. Sproul, F. West and Dr. G. Watts.

Mrs. E. F. McHale and daughter, Emerald, former canyon residents, are spending a week at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Wolfe, at 181 Vista Circle Drive, after which they will leave for Placerville where they expect to spend the balance of the summer. Mrs. McHale is a sister of Mrs. Anna L. Bawden who lives at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Wolfe.

The following guests were entertained at Cadmus Villa on Sunday: Mr. and Mrs. Charles Ashby and Mrs. Nettie J. Forest of Long Beach and Alfred E. Hunt of Monrovia. After a chicken dinner served by the hostess, Mrs. Ella A. Cadmus, the guests were entertained by Miss Lila Croxson and Miss Laura E. Cadmus, each contributing a group of songs, accompanied by Mr. Hunt at the piano.

No. 39 Sierra Madre, California, Friday, June 24, 1927 Vol. 1

No Longer a Luxury

Ice cream is now a common food, thanks to the improved method of making it. Just get an Auto-Vacuum Freezer, put in the ingredients as per recipe and in a few minutes you have it ready to serve. We have this Freezer in four sizes.

Looking down into the Grand Canyon makes one wonder how much Harvey Steinberger would charge to dig a trench of equal capacity for a swimming pool in Sierra Madre.

We also wonder how many feet of pipe Charley Klunk would use in equipping the Mojave Desert with automatic sprinklers.

Those who have tried it out say that the "Speedy" Cultivator is one of the handiest garden tools they possess.

Tandem Sprinklers

If you have no automatic sprinklers in your lawn, come in and see the type that can be connected in series with hose.

Presto! Change!

That Presto Vacuum Sweeper at $19.75 meets the wants of those who are looking for a satisfactory sweeper at a low price. Demonstration for the asking.

To many a commuter, the chief pursuit in life seems to be the 7:45 in the morning and the 5:15 at night.

After coming home from a hard day's work, covered with dust and grime, a shower bath makes a new man of you and it doesn't cost much either. Come in and get an estimate.

Some people don't mind work and some do, and that's one reason we have jails.

What's Doing At Theaters In Pasadena

The Colorado

Lon Chaney, he of uncanny disguises and strange roles, completed what is probably the strangest of all his tricks before the camera in "The Unknown," his new Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer starring vehicle, now playing at the Colorado theatre. He played an armless freak in a circus side-show, using his feet in lieu of his hands. The stage presentation will be Fanchon and Marco's "The Petters" Idea, featuring Jane Green, siren of syncopation, and a Sun-kist chorus of beauties.

The Florence

A screen play as delightfully refreshing as it is intriguingly novel in development of plot is the current attraction at the Florence theatre. It is "The World at Her Feet," with beautiful, accomplished Florence Vidor in the starring role. She plays the part of a successful lawyer who caps her career by arresting the lapsing affections of her husband who is about to stray.

Harry Langdon, the comedy ace, is coming to the Florence theatre, Sunday, in his latest feature-length comedy "His First Flame."

The Strand

All the personality and ability of Gloria Swanson as an actress makes "The Love of Sunya," her first United Artists picture, which will start at the Strand Theatre tomorrow, the outstanding cinematic success of the year.

State Picnics In Southland Parks

Four great summer picnic reunions are being announced for Bixby Park, Long Beach, under the auspices of the state organizations. ### THE MASTER CLOCK!

"Your schedule for my child makes me a clock, Doctor," is the plaint of many a weary mother; weary because she is "clock-shy."

"Like Clock Work" is an old adage for efficiency. And this applies also to child feeding.

You are the master clock! The regulator of your child's food habits!

Feeding on time is as necessary in growing "blue ribbon children" as in growing "blue ribbon chickens." We are not bound by any law to eat three meals a day. Some people eat less, some more, with equally good results. But whether we eat three or five meals a day, the important thing is regularity.

The heavy meal of the day for your child is best given at noon, even if the family has its at night. The child's meal should be simple enough to be readily worked in the family luncheon.

Milk and dry bread, a soft cooked egg, plain or in custard, green vegetable sieved (for very young child) and an occasional cereal pudding is a well balanced noon day meal.

Seven-thirty is a good breakfast hour for the three and four year old; twelve-thirty for dinner and five-thirty for supper. The last meal of the day may comprise bread and milk or cereal and milk toast with some kind of cooked fruit, such as pears, peaches, apples, steamed bananas.

No between meals should be given unless on a prescribed schedule such as a mid morning lunch of milk and crackers, or a mid-afternoon feeding of similar proportions. Otherwise nothing should be given between meals except water and fruit, such as apple or orange. A child, who is merely thirsty, often thinks he is hungry and thus gets life "piecing" habit.

Town shopping tours and long auto trips can upset good eating habits. Fifteen minutes off schedule today and thirty tomorrow soon show in a child's nutrition.

Irregular meals make fretful unhappy children, and eventually unhealthy children.

Christmas Seal Service.

Glendora To Stage Street Celebration

Glendora.—The street carnival to be held in Glendora on next Saturday night, June 25th, will be one of the most elaborate and entertaining that has been staged in this section in a long time, according to the announcement of the Chamber of Commerce committee in charge of the event.

The final arrangements for the celebration have been completed, it is stated, and no pains or money are being spared in the effort to make it attractive. Contracts have been awarded for street decorations and proper lighting effects, and the concessions committee has arranged so that every want of the visitor will be cared for.

The celebration will open with a parade over the newly paved business section of Michigan Avenue at 8 o'clock. The parade will be headed by the Pacific Electric's crack band and will launch the festivities of the evening. Another band will be on hand to furnish music in the district most distant from the point at which the Pacific Electric will be stationed.

An excellent band concert will be given, and for those who care to dance, there will be one of the snappiest jazz orchestras obtainable to furnish dance music. This orchestra will be placed on a float suitably decorated, so that the dance music will be circulated from one end of the avenue to the other.

There will be plenty of parking space available for those who come in cars and the entertainment will be continuous and diversified throughout the evening.

The celebration marks the opening of the new pavement, and will, of course, be given free.

With the arrival of warm weather, motorists should give closer attention to their tires, according to J. Milton Steinberger. "Some automobile owners," said Mr. Steinberger, "have the idea that there should be some radical change in the amount of air pressure in their tires in summer weather. Consequently, they reduce the inflation in the hope of preventing tire trouble."

"This is a mistake. Tires should be inflated at the recommended pressure the same in the summer as in winter. Maintenance of the proper inflation is by far the most important element of tire care."

"There are motorists who abuse balloon tires because they fail to take into consideration that these low pressure tires should be treated even more carefully, as regards inflation, than the high pressure tires."

Ralph Liam, 20-year-old divinity student from Carleton College, Minnesota, has made a splendid start as minister to the small congregation with which President Coolidge worships during his summer vacation in the Black Hills.

The recent decree of President Calles forbidding the Mexican government to purchase American products directly in the United States, became officially effective by publication in the Dario Oficial.

New Theatres To be Built by West Coast

Plans are now being drawn for seven new theatres to be built and added to the holdings of West Coast Theatres, Inc. They, in accordance with the announcement made by Harold B. Franklin, president of the theatre circuit, are to be located in three states: California, Arizona and Washington.

The new houses in California will be located in Oakland, Redlands, Riverside, San Bernardino and Redondo Beach. The Redlands house will have a seating capacity of 2,000; that in Riverside the same amount, with three sites for the theatre now under consideration. San Bernardino will have a new house with 2,500 seats which will be located in close proximity to the present West Coast theatre in that city. The new theatre in Redondo Beach will replace the Art theatre there and will seat 2,000.

Each of the new theatres will be of the most modern type of theatre architecture, equipped to present the very finest type of entertainment of both stage and screen, with ample stage facilities to play the latest attractions. Every possible innovation for the convenience of the public will be installed. It is the intention of the West Coast executives to make each theatre and building as fine as anything that there is in the communities.

A Canadian court has forbidden osteopaths and chiropractors the use of the title "Doctor."

And Now a Vacation

Some of us will take a vacation—traveling through neighboring states and seeing the beauties of this America of ours.

Many of us will take first aid kits, rattlesnake remedies, etc., and overlook the protection insurance can give you. So before starting let me advise you on this important matter of protection.

I have two clients who expect to arrive here in about a week's time. One wants a small house with a small down payment. If you have something in this line and it's not listed with me—do so. Thanks!

A few weeks ago some of our "beautiful" lots looked like a hay field—now the scene presented looks like a section of "no man's land." I think there's nothing like plowing the weeds under.

The canon is filling up with people who will enjoy the rustic beauties of this section of Sierra Madre.

The Arboretum is moving along nicely. We need workers and your truly will appreciate names of those who will help.

How can I Help You?

These five words express the policy of the little real estate office opposite the bank. If you desire to employ help—if you want work—this is headquarters. Then of course we sell real estate, rent houses, write insurance, believe in Sierra Madre, do our best to please buyer and seller.

Sixth of a series of Health Prescriptions Prescription Prices

NO Prescription is cheap, even though it costs less money, if in the preparation of it any necessary care has been omitted.

Medicine is needed at a critical time when health, or possibly life is at stake. If quality is sacrificed; if accuracy is not guarded; if expert knowledge or skill is not employed—be the price ever so low—it becomes a tragically expensive prescription. The highest-paid medical skill and the most carefully planned prescription may be completely nullified by incompetency, inaccuracy or unscrupulousness at the compounding desk.

Our prescription prices are in conformity with the service we render. You pay only for what you get: prompt service, professional skill in dispensing and the best and purest drugs obtainable.

give me pleasure to assist in that way.

"With renewed thanks, believe me, Very truly yours, G. W. Marston."

"If you think the Right Reverend Bishop Cantwell (of the Diocese of Los Angeles and San Diego) can be of any help as a member of the General Committee of the Sierra Madre Botanical Society, you have his right hearty permission to use his name.

"In this land of flowers, it is surprising with what indifference many people treat, the generosity of nature.

"Presenting the compliments of the Right Reverend Bishop, I am, Very sincerely yours, Bernard J. Dolan, Chancellor."

James Woods, vice president and managing director, Los Angeles Biltmore: "I appreciate very much being placed on the General Committee of the Sierra Madre Botanical Society. I wish you every success in your interesting work."

Harry Carr, Los Angeles Times: "I feel very much honored to be on the committee for the organization of the Sierra Madre Botanical Society. It is a very interesting and splendid work."

Everett W. Mattoon, county counsel of Los Angeles county:

"I wish to thank you and assure you I shall be very glad to render whatever services I can in assisting in the work you have undertaken. I appreciate the value of the object which you have in mind and wish you all success in your endeavors."

Dr. V. L. Duke, president, University of Redlands: "I wish to congratulate the citizens of Sierra Madre on their splendid undertaking, the beautifying of your city and the making of a scientific study of California flora and plants."

"If there is any way in which I can cooperate I shall gladly do so."

Frank X. Pfaffinger, Los Angeles Times: "I appreciate your action very highly. I am a great lover of flowers and have a pretty nice place myself."

"Thank you for your courtesy."

Edward A. Dickinson, editor and publisher, Los Angeles Evening Express: "Thank you. I shall be very happy indeed to help in any way that I can."

John Steven McGroarty of the Mission Play and the Los Angeles Sunday Times: "I shall be very glad indeed to cooperate in any

NO FIREWORKS FOR YOUNGSTERS AND OLD- STERS OF THIS CITY

NO FIREWORKS!

This has been the law for so long in Sierra Madre that it is accepted without question by most people. A few people have to be reminded of the summer fire danger near the mountains and there are always newcomers who need to be informed of the law.

Because of the unusually heavy grass growth, now dry and inflammable as powder, Acting Chief of Police Keegan and Fire Chief Richards ask that the public be given special warning as the Fourth of July approaches. The past week has seen a decrease in the number of fire alarms, due to greater care resulting from warnings published last week. By constant vigilance the authorities hope to get through the summer with a minimum of fire loss.

way that it may be possible for me to do so with your group in Sierra Madre which has in hand the establishment of the Arboretum. Let me know from time to time just what I might be able to do."

Warren B. Bovard, vice president and comptroller, University of Southern California: "I am warmly sympathetic with your movement and am glad to have you use my name on the committee if it will do any good. I would like to do much and will do everything I can."

William Hertrick, manager of the Henry E. Huntington Library and Art Gallery and director of the Huntington Arboretum: "I will be glad to serve as a member of your Arboretum Committee."

H. S. Bissell, president, Conservation Association of Southern California, Los Angeles: "I am very glad to cooperate with you in the work you are undertaking."

Dr. Walter F. Dexter, president Whittier College: "I shall be very happy to join your committee as I am very much interested in the type of work you are doing. I am very much interested in the arboretum."

Wedding Ceremony in College Chapel—

The marriage of Miss Adeline Nichols Shaw and Mr. Lawrence Lester Galt took place in Bridges Hall, Pomona College on Saturday afternoon. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Herbert Shaw of Hollywood and a niece of Mrs. Homer W. Glidden of Sierra Madre. The ceremony was performed by Dr. Raymond Brooks of Pomona College and marks the culmination of a college romance, both bride and groom being graduates of 1926. Miss Elizabeth Glidden was one of the four bridesmaids.

Immediately following the ceremony the wedding party came to Sierra Madre for a wedding supper at the Glidden home, 305 W. Laurel. A charmingly appointed repast was served by Miss Higgins, thirty-one guests being seated at appropriately decorated tables.

The groom, who is the son of Rev. Mr. Galt of Pekin, China, is connected with the Batchelder-Wilson Tile Company. He has recently been assigned to the Chicago office of the company where he will be associated with Mr. Glidden, one of the proprietors of the company. Mr. and Mrs. Galt are now enjoying a honeymoon trip in the north. Upon their return they will drive to Chicago in company with Mrs. Glidden and her daughters, Misses Elizabeth and Frances, who will spend the summer there.

Roberta Roberts, the little daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harold F. Roberts, of 142 East Central Avenue, broke her leg Tuesday when it caught in a swing while in motion, from which she had attempted to jump. She and Martha Jane French, the little daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Gerald D. French had been playing at the French home, 188 East Central, when the accident happened. Mrs. Roberts was summoned immediately, and after an x-ray had been taken at Dr. G. W. Groth's office on North Baldwin, it was found necessary to put the broken limb in a cast. This was performed by Dr. Gilbert S. Bovard and Mrs. Roberts, who is a nurse. Roberta is at the Roberts home, and is doing as nicely as can be expected.

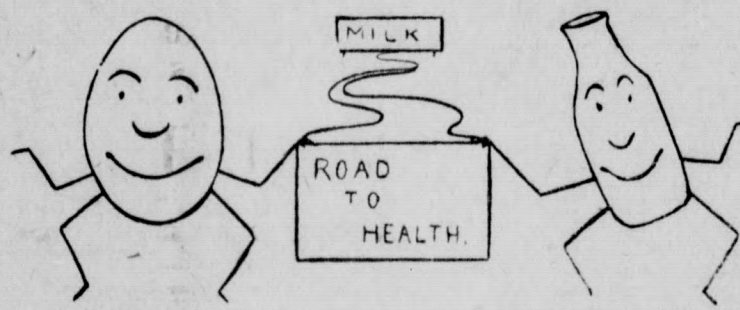

The recent hot wave in the east caused a sudden upturn in the lemon market, the first in 1927. The demand caused an advance of $1 in two days.

If you have not found an entirely satisfactory dry cleaning service—we will gladly serve you and demonstrate the qualities of this side of our business.

Dry cleaning is just as much a part of our service as laundry work—may we call soon?
